Regulations for all competitions of Fun4u Sportproduction GmbH

Fun4u Sportproduction GmbH declines all liability in the event of accidents, injuries, death, theft and damage to sports facilities of any kind.

All participants, or their legal representatives, are responsible for their own liability at all Fun4u Sportproduction GmbH competitions.

Insurance cover is the responsibility of the participant.

Freestyle sport involves an increased risk of injury. As a participant in a Fun4u Sportproduction GmbH contest, I am aware of this and will do everything in my power to protect myself from accidents with the necessary protective equipment. Helmets are compulsory at all Fun4u Sportproduction GmbH competitions. Other protective equipment such as knee pads and elbow pads are expressly recommended. If the participant waives the wearing of a helmet for personal reasons and contrary to our safety recommendations, any liability will be rejected.

Fun4u Sportproduction GmbH allows itself to take photos and videos of the competitions participants during the competition. The photographed or filmed material can also be used by Fun4u Sportproduction GmbH for advertising purposes on social media, such as Instagram, Facebook and TikTok, as well as for flyers and other marketing measures. This insurance form must be signed by each course participant before entering a Fun4u Sportproduction GmbH competition. For competition participants who are not yet of age, the declaration of consent must be signed by a legal representative of the participating child or children. The fully completed and signed form must be handed in at the registration desk.

By signing the consent form you confirm that you have read and understood the regulations for competitions as well as the general terms and conditions of Fun4u Sportproduction GmbH and declare that you agree with them.
